Death Of Yesterday Hamish Macbeth

Death of Yesterday by M.C.Beaton is the 28th book in the Hamish Macbeth Mystery series. When Morag Merrilea complains of having her drink spiked causing her loss of memory and her sketchbook stolen, she is not believed until her body is found murdered.It is always nice to revisit Lochdubh and I love the descriptions of the Scottish Highlands.

Hamish Macbeth could have been the beginning to all of these outspoken characters. Macbeth was created by M. C. Beaton (more commonly known as Marion Chesney) in a mystery novel published in 1985, the first of many in a series. Macbeth resides in the small, fictional village known as Lochdubh in northern Scotland.
