The Penal Colony Richard Herley

Richard Herley's "The Penal Colony" is a sort of Papillon off the coast of Cornwall with a bit of Scum thrown in. Another reviewer mentioned Lord of the Flies and I can see why. However, despite these references, The Penal Colony is its own story, not an imitation of another.

The Penal Colony by Richard Herley - Goodreads

Herley explored similar themes in The Pagans (1978-84), a notable trilogy about the Stone Age now being published in paperback in the United States. The Penal Colony is the trilogy's equal, casting the eternal love-hate conflict between individual and tribe in a modern context of solid adventure.
